

Equity investment across the active management spectrum

Considerations for positioning a portfolio along the active - index spectrum

- confidence to outperform

- client preference

- suitable benchmark

- client-specific mandates

- risk/costs of active management

- taxes

Advantages of index-based equity strategies

- active returns often trail the index
- lower costs
- asset allocation > security selection
- supported by the EMH